

The Beautiful Maiden

Name _____

December 12 is the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, whose story is told here in words and shown in pictures. Draw a line from each block of words to its correct picture. If you'd like, cut out the picture and the words. Then, on another sheet of paper, arrange the pictures in the correct order and paste the right words under each picture.

On his way to Mass near Mexico City in 1531, Juan Diego saw a Native American maiden dressed in Aztec clothes.

The maiden told Juan Diego to ask the bishop of Mexico to build a chapel where she appeared. But the bishop refused.

The maiden told Juan Diego to gather roses to prove to the bishop who she was. Juan put them in his cloak.

When Juan Diego opened his cloak for the bishop, they both saw a miracle. A picture of the Lady had appeared on the cloak. It was December 12, 1531.
